Tyler Moore was here tonight and he presented us with a slide show of his trip we sponsored him on.

He went to the UK from July 11-30th 2007. His slide show was very well done and we were told he did it all on his own. Some of the places of interest were Windsor Castle, Residence of the Queen of England, Stonehenge, Salisbury Cathedral, Great Hall of Winchester home of the knights of the round table, Oxford University made up of 30 colleges, Shakespeare's birthplace, The World of Beatrix Potter, J.K Rawlings bookstore, Warwick Castle,
